Local Attorney is appointed by the American Arbitration Association

Norfolk, VA. (March 3, 2015) – William E. Franczek, partner in the law firm Vandeventer Black LLP, was recently appointed by the American Arbitration Association to its AAA Construction Mega Project Panel. According to the AAA, the new panel is comprised of the top construction arbitrators as rated by counsel on construction mega projects. Bill has been a construction arbitrator for the AAA for over 30 years.

Bill was the former Managing Partner for the firm from 2000 – 2014, and continues his practice in representing parties on construction projects, and in Alternative Dispute Resolution as both an arbitrator and a mediator, specializing in construction and government contracting.
