NEWS RELEASE

Harvey Named President of Norfolk and Portsmouth Bar Association

Norfolk, VA (June 13, 2017) – Vandeventer Black LLP partner and Executive Board member James R. Harvey was named the president of the Norfolk and Portsmouth Bar Association at the recently held NPBA Annual Dinner and award ceremony. The NPBA has been serving the local legal community since 1900 and is one of the largest local bar associations in Virginia.

Harvey follows other Vandeventer Black attorneys who lead the NPBA. He has been part of the NPBA's Executive Board since 2011 and served as president of its charitable foundation. Also, he was recognized with the prestigious Walter E. Hoffman Community Service Award in 2004. In addition to the NPBA, Harvey serves as the Chair of the Norfolk Board of Zoning Appeals, and is a past Chair of the Virginia Bar Association's Construction and Public Contracts Section. He is also the Chairman of the Board of Directors for Tidewater Aquatic Club, which promotes competitive youth swimming.

Harvey's professional career includes extensive experience in construction, surety, government contracts, land use, defective products, professional liability and business disputes. He regularly appears in state and federal courts as well as various arbitration panels representing the needs of contractors, subcontractors, suppliers, owners, developer's engineers, architects, insurers or sureties and their agents. He served on active duty as a U.S. Army Officer and in the Virginia National Guard.
