NEWS RELEASE

Vandeventer Black Recognized as a Pro Bono Law Firm of the Year

Norfolk, VA (October 19, 2017)– Vandeventer Black LLP was recognized as Law Firm of the Year (Large Practice) by the Legal Aid Society of Eastern Virginia (LASEV) as part of their Pro Bono Celebration & Recognition Program. The firm was selected for its outstanding contribution of time and resources which provided access to legal services for clients of LASEV.

“We are honored to receive this special award and grateful for the selfless dedication to this cause that our attorneys have displayed over the past year,” said Michael L. Sterling, Managing Partner.

Numerous Vandeventer Black attorneys were recognized for their gift of time through the Pro Bono & Private Attorney Involvement Program, including the firm’s Norfolk Pro Bono Committee members, Jennifer L. Eaton and Robert O’Donnell. For more information, visit VanBlackLaw.com.
