NEWS RELEASE

Vandeventer Black's Caramore Promoted to Partner

Norfolk, VA (January 8, 2018) – Vandeventer Black LLP attorney Megan B. Caramore has been promoted to partner. Caramore, formerly Of Counsel in the Norfolk office, has been with the firm since 2009.

"We are proud of Megan's dedication and hard work which has led her to this significant achievement," said Michael L. Sterling, Managing Partner.

Caramore concentrates her practice in state and longshore workers' compensation insurance defense, as well as FELA litigation. Caramore has argued before the Virginia Supreme Court and regularly handles cases in federal and state courts. She also appears before the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission and the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs. She is a member of the Virginia Association of Defense Attorneys and the Virginia Workers' Compensation Inns of Court. For more information, visit VanBlackLaw.com.
