Vandeventer Black Wins Large Firm (Per Capita) Category in 2018 Virginia Legal Food Frenzy

Norfolk, VA (June 26, 2018) – Vandeventer Black LLP was the top finisher in Virginia in the Large Firm (per capita) category during the 12th annual Legal Food Frenzy. The Firm raised over $15,000 for the Foodbank of Southeastern Virginia as well as contributed volunteer hours and non-perishable food. This is Vandeventer Black’s second consecutive year winning the award.

“Vandeventer Black’s continued success in the Legal Food Frenzy exemplifies this firm’s commitment to serving the community. Our attorneys, staff, and friends did a wonderful job of coming together to support this worthy cause,” said Thomas Chappell, attorney at the firm.

The law firm was presented “The Chesapeake Bay Blue Crab Award” during the 2018 Legal Food Frenzy Awards Reception in Richmond with Attorney General of Virginia, Mark Herring. The friendly competition encourages law firms, law schools, and government institutions to support foodbanks in Virginia. For more information, please visit VanBlackLaw.com.
