NEWS RELEASE

Vandeventer Black's Jed Donaldson Receives Peer Review Rating

Richmond, VA (February 21, 2019) – Vandeventer Black attorney, Jed Donaldson, received the AV[®] Preeminent[®] Peer Review Rating[™] from Martindale-Hubbell[®], the legal profession's most prestigious rating service. This is the highest possible rating for an attorney for both ethical standards and legal ability. The "AV" designation represents the pinnacle of professional excellence and achieved after an attorney has been reviewed and recommended by his/her peers, including members of the bar and the judiciary.

Donaldson, also a recipient of the Super Lawyer's Rising Star award, concentrates his practice on insolvency-related litigation and distressed transactions. He handles bankruptcy and restructuring matters, as well as out-of-court workouts, and he represents all stakeholders in those matters, including, creditors, debtors, asset-purchasers, equipment lessors, trade vendors, committees, debtor-in-possession lenders, trustees, and debt buyers.

In addition to transactional and finance matters, Donaldson focuses his litigation practice on adversary proceedings and contested matters before bankruptcy courts, as well as commercial litigation before federal and state courts. For more information, please visit VanBlackLaw.com.
