Hill Hill Carter Attorney Invited to Become Alabama Law Foundation Fellow

Hill Hill Carter Shareholder Shawn Junkins Cole was invited into Fellowship with the Alabama Law Foundation in December 2019. The Alabama Law Foundation established their Fellows Program in 1995 to honor Alabama State Bar Association members who have made a positive impact professionally and communally. Only about one percent of members are invited into Fellowship, and those selected have demonstrated their dedication and desire to improve their communities and state.

The Alabama Law Foundation supports civil legal aid programs and projects that improve the administration of justice and furthering education. Since it began in 1987, the foundation has awarded $20.9 million in grants; helped over 30 law students pay for their education; awarded $681,500 in Kids' Chance Scholarships; and recognized 412 Fellows for their foundation and community contributions.

Ms. Cole's area of practice focuses on workers' compensation defense and work injury ancillary claims. Ms. Cole is a member of a number of boards, including: the Board of Montgomery County Bar Foundation, Mercy House Board and Kiwanis of Montgomery Foundation Board. Much of her time outside of the firm is spent working with inner city ministries in a variety of areas.
